

Learjets 3 (Cloud Chronicles)

CyHi The Prynce

I just want to run this play
So that I can run away, with you...
I need you to let me know
That you'll never let me go, is this true

I'm a loner
I'm borderline in Mexico
My minds in Arizona
I'm the symbol of a Prince and you're fine as Apollonia
I'm a doctor a bachelor a master my fourth diploma
The cash was from off the corner
Moon rock aroma baccarat cologne
Every I set the bar I'm knocking down coronas
Sativa from Seattle, I was an organ donor
She wants to marry but I dance around the ring like I'm Loma
She mad that I don't want her, shorty want to leave
I say the sooner the better, make a stop in Oklahoma
Here's a pick up line, I don't own a tacoma
Or a bitch who's never heard of William Sonoma
But I smoked a blunt with her
So why would I stoner (stone her)
She talking in my ear, I'm like I don't belong here
Cause I see through them lies like lingerie
You ain't gotta enunciate I know what you want to say, she say...

I just want to run this play
So that I can run away, with you...
I need you to let me know
That you'll never let me go, is this true

I met a dancer out in Aspen we was cold chillin
She had dreams to be an actress but the road switched
So now she's on the pole stripping, just to get attention
From old nigga who will probably throw their whole pension
She running game but she really wants to run away
But I ain't show up with no cape so I can't save the day
Its kind of sad how Mona Lisa turned to Lisa ray
Let me explain she's insecure, no Issa ray
Running plays to feed the fam likes its hunger games
Rolling grams at my mothers pad in younger days
I was not afraid to hit the block and get my pockets paid
Bumping big poppa who shot ya, put that shit on Calloway...

Let's run away from your curse
You know shit could be worse
A difficult relationship game let's see who cheats first
She think the order to pay me is to reimburse
She drink me like a sprite then still can't obey her thirst
Her heart was cold like made of February, in plus
The attitude was unnecessary, that sucks
She claims to hold it down to be the good one of course
But once we raise the volume up to high no we can't adjust
A lot of things to build and to demonstrate
Ain't no hesitation when it come to plays
But if you run away with me
You can't play no games with me

Keep it natural because I ain't into Kim Ks
She try to tell me that isn't the truth
If you don't believe the truth why should I believe in you
I know you think I wouldn't let you through
But feelings aren't mutual I'll give you the deuce oops

I just want to run this play
So that I can run away, with you...
I need you to let me know
That you'll never let me go, is this true
