

Looking for Love

CyHi The Prynce

Yeah

(I know what you're looking for)
Looking for love, looking for love, looking for love, girl
It's not in the club, not in the club, not in the club, girl
Someone to trust, someone to trust, someone to trust, girl
(I know what you're looking for)
Yeah, looking for love, looking for love, looking for love, girl
It's not in the club, not in the club, not in the club, girl
Someone to trust, someone to trust, someone to trust, girl
(I know what you're looking for)

Yeah, CyHi

Someone that shows, open the doors, help with the chores
Money galore, entrepreneur, pull up in the Porsche (skrr, skrr, skrr)
Spend guap in the stores, bring you flowers and more, girl
(I know what you're looking for)
You want the man who can provide
Look you in your eyes, tell you no lies
Cook on the side in the hood with his guys
Then go to church paying off his offerings and tithes
Still hit the club, throw some ones into the sky
If that's what you want come and jump in the ride
He gon' make sure you got somewhere to live
He gon' make sure you got something to try
And I wanna be that person for you
You don't know how long I've been searching for you
I can't wait to put some purses on you, girl
(I know what you're looking for)
'cause I heard that you're

Looking for love, looking for love, looking for love, girl
It's not in the club, not in the club, not in the club, girl
Someone to trust, someone to trust, someone to trust, girl
(I know what you're looking for)
Yeah, looking for love, looking for love, looking for love, girl
It's not in the club, not in the club, not in the club, girl
Someone to trust, someone to trust, someone to trust, girl
(I know what you're looking for)

Yeah, CyHi

Staying on his grind, but still give you time
You run through his mind, uh
Buying you something that shines
Bun up a 9, run with iron (pah, pah pah, pah)
One of a kind, you want Jesus and Obama combined, girl...
Uh, she just wants someone that street, but still got class
Still got cash, most of her friends said it will not last
Tryin' go legit, but he still got bags
Who still love you in your Jill Scott swag
I said I like it thick, but she still got mad
I said I like it thick, but she still got mad
That type that's gon' tell you, you beautiful
You deal with headaches on the usual
All that's gon' take is one manicure
And no, I'm not talking about cuticles
I know all these things might be new to you
Like leaving gifts in your cubicle

(I know what you're looking for)
And I've seen you be jumpin' through hula-hoops

Looking for love, looking for love, looking for love, girl
It's not in the club, not in the club, not in the club, girl
Someone to trust, someone to trust, someone to trust, girl
(I know what you're looking for)
Yeah, looking for love, looking for love, looking for love, girl
It's not in the club, not in the club, not in the club, girl
Someone to trust, someone to trust, someone to trust, girl
(I know what you're looking for)

(You're not mine, I'm not yours either
Though we both have strong desires
First there's marriage, then having babies
Love me now and forever my lady
You're not mine, I'm not yours either
Though we both have strong desires
First there's marriage, then having babies
Love me now and forever my lady)

(What you're looking for
I know what you're looking for, for)
