

Dreams Gone Wrong

Cyhra

Is this fear that I hear?
Am I lost? Is this real?
Nightmares belong where dreams gone wrong

The less you sleep
The more you make
The less you feel
The more you fake
The less you bleed
The more you hope
Spiral down an endless rope

A sharper edge
A cleaner hurt
There can't be love
When hearts are burnt
You die for me
I'd die for you
Make a wish I'll sing for you

Is this fear that I hear?
Am I lost? Is this real?
Nightmares belong where dreams gone wrong
We are dead or alive
Where's the truth I can't hide?
Nightmares belong where dreams gone wrong

The less you fight
The more you give
The less you care
The more you live
The less you hide
The more you see
Twilight's darkest watching me

I cannot stir
I see their eyes
I feel awake
But I can't cry
The black is thick
Without a face
Will this be the end for me

Is this fear that I hear?
Am I lost? Is this real?
Nightmares belong where dreams gone wrong
We are dead or alive
Where's the truth I can't hide?
Nightmares belong where dreams gone wrong

Is this fear that I hear?
Am I lost? Is this real?
Nightmares belong where dreams gone wrong

Is this fear that I hear?
Am I lost? Is this real?
Nightmares belong where dreams gone wrong

We are dead or alive
Where's the truth I can't hide?
Nightmares belong where dreams gone wrong
