

I Am The One

Cyhra

I hold this banner up with pride
To give the world a place to hide
A life of guilt but I'm transformed
Now I'm the center of the storm

As you have nothing left than hearts to break
My life for your hate

I am the one, I am the one, I am the one
I am the architect to rule your fate
I am the one, I am the one
I am the beautiful without a face
I am the one, I am the one, I am the one
I hold the dreams from fallen heroes
I am the one, I am the one
As you erase me from yourself

As I turned left I can't go right
Here is the story of my life
The path I chose was never wrong
Until the vortex came along

As you have nothing left than hearts to break
My life for your hate

I am the one, I am the one, I am the one
I am the architect to rule your fate
I am the one, I am the one
I am the beautiful without a face
I am the one, I am the one, I am the one
I hold the dreams from fallen heroes
I am the one, I am the one
As you erase me from yourself

As you have nothing left than hearts to break
My life for your hate

I am the one, I am the one, I am the one
I am the architect to rule your fate
I am the one, I am the one
I am the beautiful without a face
I am the one, I am the one, I am the one
I hold the dreams from fallen heroes
I am the one, I am the one
As you erase me from yourself
