

The Voice You Need To Hear

Cyhra

You feel lonely like a cub lost in the wild
No future, no lights nor sounds
Tonight you feel the weakest
You keep on running like there's someone here
But you should know that you can drop your fear
I am the voice you need to hear

So tell me one more time
That I should look the other way
And dodge the fight
Don't even try

Let's turn this storm
Into something beautiful
As one we'll melt the ice
Together we fight
Let's ride this out
Tomorrow we'll laugh and shout
Together
I'm here forever

You feel forgotten like a monster in the dark
You feel misplaced and out of love
Tonight you feel the weakest
You keep on hiding even though you're in dismay
Please ask for help, don't be afraid
I'm here, come here, don't run away

You tell me there's no option
Then to spread your wings and fly
Don't dodge this fight
Don't even try

Let's turn this storm
Into something beautiful
As one we'll melt the ice
Together we fight
Let's ride this out
Tomorrow we'll laugh and shout
Together
I'm here forever

Let's turn this storm
Into something beautiful
As one we'll melt the ice
Together we fight
Let's ride this out
Tomorrow we'll laugh and shout
Together
I'm here forever
