

Missing

Cymphonique

I've packed up all your things, take your promised ring
There's nothing left for me you to talk about
There's no more tears left to cry we've said our last goodbye
I'm just finally happy that's it over now

And now that your free hope she gives you what you need
Cause there's no more us, you can move around
But I'm so confused cause I still think of you
Can't front it ain't the same with you

I'm missing your love, said your love that I've been missing
Can't go on without your kisses, I need you (Ooh)
I'm missing your love, said your love that I've been missing
Can't go on without your kisses, I need you (Ooh)

I'm way too young for this I've wasted too much time
I guess they say you gotta live and learn
I thought I knew it all, but listen too no one
My mama used to say "Don't give your heart away"

It was you and me against the the world, was it just for nothing
I've been thinking bout the past and what we had
And now I can't see me without you (Ooh)

I'm missing your love, said your love that I've been missing
Can't go on without your kisses, I need you (Ooh)
I'm missing your love, said your love that I've been missing
Can't go on without your kisses, I need you (Ooh)
