

Unhuman

Cymphonique

Unhuman... Oh, you must be
Unhuman, cause you got me doing things I normally ain't doing
Oh you must be unhuman, you must be magical
You must be super magic boy, you got my heart, you must be...

See I told myself I'd never ever fall in love with you, baby
But it seems the more I pulled away, the more stronger it grew,
baby

And I tell myself, how could I not see it coming? Baby...
And I tell myself, really ain't no need in running...
Swear I keep telling myself, that you must be unhuman
Cause you got me doing things I normally ain't doing, oh
You must be unhuman...
You must be magical, you must be super magic boy, you got my heart
You must be unhuman
Cause you got me doing things I normally ain't doing, oh
You must be unhuman...
You must be magical, you be super magic boy
You must be...

Must have mind control the way you got me so attached to you, baby
Cause I've never had no one that I could give my heart to, baby

And I tell myself, how could I not see it coming? Baby...
And I tell myself, really ain't no need in running...
Swear I keep telling myself that you must be unhuman...
Cause you got me doing things I normally ain't doing, oh
You must be unhuman...
You must be magical, you must be super magic boy
You got my heart, you must be unhuman...
Cause you got me doing things I normally ain't doing, oh
You must be unhuman...
You must be magical, you must be super magic boy
You must be... unhuman
You must be... unhuman
You must be... unhuman
Unhuman... oh, you must be...
