

Holy Roller

CYN

I walk through the valley of the shadow of death
But I came to your apartment in a car with a dent
Now I'm falling on your floor naked in a blanket
Knock twice if you're not done yet
So I'm begging you to save me 'cause my heroes are dead
And I'm asking you for water with a pill for my head
Better listen to me, I've got my hands on your neck
Knock twice if you're not done yet

I've been feeling higher powers when you lay with me
Like a holy spirit all confused about who it's supposed to be
So I take a sip of something, you say, "Let's me-meet"
God?

I'm feeling like a holy roller like I joined a cult
I'm feeling like a holy roller, and it's all your fault
I can't repent for something I meant
Besides, you know I love the punishment
Like a holy roller, and it's all your fault

So you like my best friend, yeah, except for the sex
And Goddamn, such an angel waking up in my bed
Better listen to me, I've got my hands on your neck
Knock twice if you're not done yet

I've been feeling higher powers when you lay with me
Like a holy spirit all confused about who it's supposed to be
So I take a sip of something, you say, "Let's me-meet"
God?

I'm feeling like a holy roller like I joined a cult
I'm feeling like a holy roller, and it's all your fault
I can't repent for something I meant
Besides, you know I love the punishment
Like a holy roller, and it's all your fault

Basking in your presence feels like presents all the time
I'm a sucker for a savior and you save me just in time
I'm not always a fanatic, automatic all the time
And now I'm feeling like a holy roller, like I joined a cult

I'm feeling like a holy roller, like I joined a cult
I'm feeling like a holy roller and it's all your fault
I can't repent for something I meant
Besides, you know I love the punishment
Like a holy roller and it's all your fault

I'm feeling like a holy roller
Holy roller, all your fault
