

Love You Like I Want To

CYN

Things get
Kinda complicated
Kinda crazy
Babe you're still my favorite
Still my baby
Can't believe we have a little baby
Lately, it's so beautiful
But difficult
It's all shoulda, woulda, coulda
I could write a book of
All the ways karma is a bitch
But babe, you know it's
None of my business

I wish your ex would just calm down
She can't stop what's natural now
I wanna love you, love you like I do
Love you, love you like I want to
Wish your ex would just move on
Stead of making me feel I did something wrong
I wanna love you, love you like I do
Love you, love you like I want to

It's weird
When she calls to ask you how you're doing
It's not my fault she thinks her life is ruined
We all know it was over
When I met you
She already left you all alone
We started talking
All night on the phone
And when we said forever
It was never about her

I wish your ex would just calm down
She can't stop what's natural now
I wanna love you, love you like I do
Love you, love you like I want to
Wish your ex would just move on
Stead of making me feel I did something wrong
I wanna love you, love you like I do
Love you, love you like I want to

Someone to step on
Consideration, I got none
Can't believe she'd lie like this
Holy shit
Everyone's a feminist
Isn't it hilarious?
I knew she'd be upset
And you know, I hate the way it happened
But you know, I don't believe in regret
People saying, "do the math"
Good luck adding up all that

I wish your ex would just calm down
She can't stop what's natural now

I wanna love you, love you like I do
Love you, love you like I want to
Wish your ex would just move on
Stead of making me feel I did something wrong
I wanna love you, love you like I do
Love you, love you like I want to

Calm down, dear god
I did nothing wrong
Calm down, just move on
I did nothing wrong
