I can get up
On the right side of the bed
But that won't stop the rain
From coming down on my head
I can live my life
Playing hide and seek
But when I look inside
It's hard to make believe,
Ah ah

'n lately
You seem so far away
I wish I could say something
But I don't know what to say
I can feel your eyes
I don't have to look at you
Boy, discontentment
Is-a-sneakin' through

You never really want anything But what you really need is everything I'll give you something only life can bring The calm inside the storm Love me a little, love me long Wo yeah The calm inside the storm Love me a little, love me long Don't you know You should be holding me But you're all locked inside Why don't you throw me your keys I'm like a rockin' ship On your rollin' sea You know crash lightnin' Never frightens me, nah

...you never really wanted
But what u really needed
I wanna give u something
Mmm... the calm inside the storm
Love me a little, love me long
Love me a little, love me long
