

Grab a Hold

Cyndi Lauper

Going to make a confession
Going to hope that you listen
I'm not a story you've read about
I'm just what I am
And when you open your eyes up
In the morning you rise up
Wash yesterday from your face
And make a new plan

Oh it's my fascination with the anticipation

If you want to grab a hold
If you want to grab a hold
If you want to grab a hold
Let it go...

I'm going to write down a letter
And maybe some day you'll get it
And know what I meant to say
And make it ok
And if ya look at my picture
You know the one on your dresser
And if you think that you see a frown
Turn me upside down

Why don't you use your imagination?
Make it what you have to make it

If you want to grab a hold...
Let it go...

You get your grip,
I'll hold you up.
Just reach with your hand
And then use your imagination
Make it what you have to make it

If you want to grab a hold...
Let it go...
