

6th Dimensional Archetype

Cynic

Sixth dimensional archetype
I was floating through a beam of light
Saw the edge of a ship in the sky
Entered through a port from below
A crystalline machinery exposed
Before my eyes
A spacecraft guides
Metamorphic shaped inside a sphere
Telepathic teaching, nothing to fear

I looked upon them as guardians
Protectors of nature train my heart
Four beings around my head
An evolution of consciousness
Like a seed under the Earth
A continuum
Metamorphic shaped inside a cube
Telepathic teaching, right HemiSync fused

Metamorphic shaped inside a sphere
Telepathic teaching, nothing to fear
Tomorrow never knows
Tomorrow never comes
