

Humanoid

Cynic

I paid you, squeaky wheel, go try healing this too
That said, you're full of it
On a bend, beg to fail, properly holding your grudge
That said, you're full of shit
Try accepting this

Why not face today? Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy, end it all within
Why not face today? Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy, end it all within Last burned?
Well grab a pen for the forth and unknown
Hated work, but loved the scene
The somber came, juxtaposed, all the subtle-ness of
A downed plane, defeat again
Try accepting this

Why not face today? Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy, end it all within
Why not face today? Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy, end it all within

If only the crying could heal
I'd sell my left arm to buy passion
If only apologies worked
I could find some reasons why maybe you wouldn't be

So ill, so, ill
Sorry your soul's so fucking shallow
It's creeping outside, outside of its hole
It's trying to see, say it, fake this reality!

Why not face today?
Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy, end it all within
Why not face today?
Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy, end it all within

Why not face today? Why not face today?
Why not face today? Why not face
Why not face today? Why not face today?
Why not face today? Why not face today?
