

Falling Down

Cypress Hill

Light done struck me, see I'm feelin' lucky like I know she'll fuck me
Life's a fickle bitch and there's no tellin' if she loves me
Sometimes she smiles on me, I could see her light shinin'
But when the light is gone it's dark, it's cold before the Life
's about timin' it, and time, it waits for nobody It's like a fuckin' drug controllin' your mind and your whole b ody
Burnin' from your soul, yearnin' for more in this How come he livin' the life of royalty, I take what I want natu rally
You're the casualty as we casually take you tragically Magically make you disappear, randomly cause calamity

Sittin' in the in the dark
Sittin' in the in the dark
I keep fallin' down, I keep fallin' down, I keep fallin' down (
stay down)
I keep fallin' down, I keep fallin' down, I keep fallin' down (
stay down)

This is the insanity, get this dose of anarchy
Soak in all of the vanity, devoid of all humanity, examine me
Break apart your family, randomly ahead of me
This is a rhapsody, a tragedy
Examine me, take a close look like a mint Got you fuckin' shook
, and now I close the book
As I'm walkin' through the park, got you scared of the dark Frightened by the shadows, I'm the one that takes the Sittin' in the in the dark
Sittin' in the in the dark
I keep fallin' down, I keep fallin' down, I keep fallin' down (
stay down)
I keep fallin' down, I keep fallin' down, I keep fallin' down (
stay down)
