

Red Light Visions

Cypress Hill

Break that shit off nigga

Look at all the M.C.'s trying to get down
But all you get is a peeled back dome cap
I'm not the one to be having that shit
All these punk niggas better bow down and submit

Niggas don't know how to keep it real
Only if you niggas know the real deal
Fuck all the bullshit Cypress Hill
Comes raining on your brain bringing the blood stains
Smearred on the sidewalk one mark dome
Of the prejudice skull hanging in my home

Straight to you dome sucker
So what you wanna do fool

The Big Game hunter fucking shit up
Get your ass back down the Hill's on the cut
Who'll get in the circle let's see if you're raw
Hardcore last vato might hit the fucking floor
Glocks and sick in them one clip
For any buster who wanna flip

Back ese saypring shining in your eye
Soul of an assassin until I die
Red light visions in your dome piece
Nightmares running through your head won't cease
Look at you now broke down and done
No competition can ever get none

Straight flip flop nigga flip flop
On your punk ass until you drop
(Cypress Hill, coming at your grill)
You're nothing but a motherfucking time
Clock Cypress motherfucking Hill
(Fuck how you feel)
It ain't but another piece to the puzzle fool
