Czarface

Ayo one part of my brain is focused on meeting Yoda
The other part's focused on meeting Mia Malkova, no suh
Your feet felt the heat cause the street melts
When I speak on beats I leave welts
If I need help I go down swinging like Steve Jeltz
Yeah cross my heart like umm seat belts
They call me the grandmaster scattered your man's ashes
Shatter your land masses with complicated
Patterns and styles like Dan Flashes
That can't be your best tune
Rapping like that you'll be dead soon
Victories are flawless, shout to Ed Boon
Czarface would like a word with you let's connect soon
Yo Deck hit 'em with that 1, 2

That ain't a mic check
That's the jab, I ain't give you the right yet
I want it, then I get it, ain't no need for the price check
Multicolored cards that I ain't even swiped yet
I get it off the arm that's strong alignment
While you need a cosign to cosign your consignment
Brady on the bucs still gaming in my retirement
I'm selling in the hood, real product of my environment
You know the rezzy, I'm heavy, muscles sore, back sweaty
So it's veal with the spaghetti
Anybody tell you about Deck, you already...
Call me ken swift with the gift I'm rocksteady
