

You can't steal a moment, man of the hour
Like a hundred horses you can feel the power
Say you make it rain but I bring sunshowers
Known to pop it off you can smell gun powder
Pay per view the broadcast live from the conflict
Thinking he's a rapper nah he an ex-convict
Welcome to the jungle we the new kontras
Watch them kill themselves when they running from the monster
You should see their faces, reason for the hatred
Rightfully so they ain't in the conversation
Gotta say my name if you talk about the a-list
You don't talk money, we don't speak the same language
I be on my iceberg slim, that's goines shit
And you know the boy strike first, off the coin flip
Rebel INS your highness the anointed
You're witnessing the fallout because you can't avoid it

B-movie bloodshed, bust it how I bust lead
What you illustrate is dated, Mug Man and Cuphead
Mystery Machine mowing down the miscreants
I come correct like an AVN award recipient
You, wack and corny raps that bore me
You're filler dog and that's the story
Any category I'm a capture glory
Tap the 40 I'm a twist ya cap
Cause you're plastic like a blister pack
I serve a cat like chicken cacciatore
I KO a rapper leave 'em dozing on the pavement
Stuff him in a Czarface sleeping bag, that's my blanket statement
Bringing the Wild Style like Lee Quinones
Speaking bogus, deep in focus
I was raised less than a parsec from Geonosis
The mic you use it wrong like cops with police batons
Your feature song is trash so to even turn the speaker on is Pointless like Nerf knives, or the second B in bomb
I sound it out for kids like Power Records read-a-long
