Yo, yo, meant to dude
Said you had the latest dots
When you telling more lies than satan does
Hey, because you lie you can fall your only churchill
Your mouth's in a toilet bowl
Now you tell me who's fat chips in the middle
You fix this nigga, quick, quick better wake up
I spit sweet here, rip off your make up
'Cause everybody know you made a quick for that, Jacob
I spot your lies from a mile away
'Cause you talk fast, mumbling an apology, ma apology, ma'am
Just telling the truth
I know you don't leave but you're telling the bull
You said your chic is really like boo with shades
But really she's like a baboon with braids
So next time you wanna tell a lie in splendor
Remember I'm handy with the lie detector
