

(Ooh, Jony)

Nothing good lasts, it will end in a minute
Love when you smile and I love when you winning
I need some help, on my lone and I'm thinking
Love when you smile and I love when you winning
I want your drugs and the love, I need both
I got some drugs in my Louis V coat
I pull up on niggas for racks that they owe
We outside for numbers and baby, they know (Baby, they know)

I pull my bitch to the side
I wish I could see my nigga just one more time (One more time)
I pull my bitch to the side (My bitch to the side)
I wish I could see my nigga just one more time (Nigga, just one more time)
I pull my bitch to the side
I wish I could see my nigga just one more time (One more time)
I pull my bitch to the side (My bitch to the side)

This life is so draining, coke in the pot, let it set like a cookie and then
I just drain it
I got a brick of cadaan and a brick of madow, and I got different phones
Two different watches, I wear them two different times, I got two girls in d ifferent zones
I'm on the strip with a pole
Living so reckless, I got a stripper at home
I'm smoking hashish

Now she wanna talk 'bout birth signs
Ex-boyfriend hate number 29
Now she sayin' that she couldn't pick no worse guy
I'ma run up some M's with these words
Then put new burners and bricks on the curb

Nothing good lasts, it will end in a minute
Love when you smile and I love when you winning
