

Plain Jane

D-Block Europe

You gotta double wrap the bujj, you gon' be here all day babe
I told Shanice, "If you take a trip, you can get Chanaynay"
No blicky or flicky, I used a bottle, David Haye way
I just drop racks on a Day-Date and my right hand done the same
Yeah, I ain't tryna fuck, just want a taste
Crack so tough, it broke the razor blade
Yeah, two racks for a pint, purple rain
Remember the arse but forgot the name
I got bitches in Paris and bitches in Spain
I can put on the bussy or put on the plain jane

I just told my counsellor, I'm feelin' so weird again
Flashbacks to that night in the bando, I'm fightin' my tears again
Prosecution tryna offer me years again
I got a brick of the flake in the back of the Jag and I think it's best if w e do this trip in the Range
She keep on sayin' that she wouldn't fuck on the first date, well you should a said that when you came
I kick the bitch out the hotel suite and I smoke us some Mary Jane
My nigga walk in the park, dog on deck, testin' his aim
Party in the Park, Xans on deck, Tesla again

You gotta double wrap the bujj, you gon' be here all day babe
I told Shanice, "If you take a trip, you can get Chanaynay"
No blicky or flicky, I used a bottle, David Haye way

Put all my diamonds on freeze (Freeze)
I think these niggas are weak (Niggas are) Broski, he matchin' with me (Matchin' with)
Label, the bangers on lean
And I always got killers on me
Eighty racks, I was shoppin' in Hatton
None of my bitches is average
I sell these drugs like my dad did
I'm numbin' the pain (Numb), thought this life would get easier
My Rollie is plain, none of my bitches will leave me now
She's gonna wait all night 'cause this gonna take all day darlin' (Darlin')
I lick a little bit, she started laughing

You gotta double wrap the bujj, you gon' be here all day babe
