

Wounds From Within

D.I.

What's that behind you
It will come back
Kapoww
I've seen the scars flying humans and to stars
They've got no morals
They belong behind bars
Daddy he wears a hood they say he must be blind
Subculture, self destruction it will leave you all behind
You feel those wounds from within
Is it eternal sin
Destroying empty minds
Is that such a crime, such a crime
Super star, for the USSR
Total obliteration would do me just fine
Systematic race filters stocking their prey
They'll get you
They'll get you
They'll get you
They'll get you
They'll get you
They'll get you
They'll get you
They'll get you
They'll get you
Your time will come
The fun has just begun
Don't turn your back
Don't look for that shadow
Constant attack
They'll never stop, they'll always want more
