

Suicidal

D.O.A.

They're very bored and they're suicidal. They're very bored and they're suicidal. They're very bored and they're suicidal. Livin in the swamps of jersey. Toxic dumps and poison skies. They think they got nothin' to live for so they fo and take their lives.

In a teenage depression ya never see things very clear. Don't get burned by the bullshit. Ya gotta get your life in gear.

It doesn't matter what you got. It doesn't matter who you are. Ya gotta break the chains on you. An' slit the wrists of the hand of doom. No more suicides, no more suicides, no more suicides, no more suicides
