

You Won't Stand Alone

D.O.A.

time to make a stand time to have our say don't buckle under get t in the way 'cause there's many ears to listen and many hands to help time to wake them up and give the liars hell [Chorus:] when your face the storm you won't stand alone we'll all fight back with every stone not just for yourself we do it for all reach out for our help you won't stand alone they'll line you up to listen in front of tv and make you feel lucky 'cause you've something to eat and you'll pee in a jar just to keep your job unless you're downsized like another useless cog [Chorus:] they climb the corporate ladder they take the kickback they'd sell out their memories they can go to hell [Chorus:]
