and everything is gorgeous and you never know, where this road is gonna take ya (yh)

left to right, its gonna shake ya up and down, round and round and change you all because your living life like a big shot, you the man, number 1 at the top life change welcome to the life you never had at all from the tida, down to the coast of costa rica ... introducing the good life august glad to meet ya, feel ya

this may not last forever.. but im glad that were together unhuh and i love my girl but music is that shit so i guess for now we'll put up with that distance the oceans apart will never change perception of who you are to me and baby all of the lights and camera action im experienced in all my way to get it where im headed is just a show ohh understand that you are with me girl in every step and every where i go

and imma kidg shocking, just looking at these rolexes surrounded by the city life hanging around the streets never seen before

no pitstops, luey love, gucci dreams Im living like a big shot your living life just like a big shot you the man, number 1 at the top life change welcome to the life you never had at all
