

Love Drunk

D-Pryde

Cause I'm so love, drunk
So love, drunk, so love, drunk, so love drunk

Yeah!

Old chick, on my mind, trying to have a good time Trying to, give my, heart to bitches, but you already done took mine

They got shots poured she's all caked up, but in the morning I wake up

And regret what I did cause I miss you still, and I a'int even drink I just hate love

Tripping off of my ex-chick, that real love yeah I mess with Can't believe that you'd leave, now you're in every girl that I see

Uh uh

Trying to set myself free, now you're all poured in my cup Done drank you up like way too much now I'm all the way turned up

Over you, girl I'm tryna get over you Over you, I'm tryna get over you

New bitch, old news, solo with my own moves Thought I could stand on my own two, my mistake when I disowned you

Now you're all that I'm thinking about, spot full of wonderful dimes

And I be in my bed with this bad one, but you be all up in my m ind

And that's every night that I lay back, all this feels like my payback

Don't tell me you love me, don't say that, cause when you talk that ish it bring me way back

I'm swerved, I'm leaned, you took control of me

Can't believe I'm all full of love, scratch that, I'm so love, drunk

I think that I'm on one, I say it's all your fault Love wasted, I'm love wasted, bottoms up let me drink it all I said I am too turned up right now, I am far from sober I've been so love drunk ever since our love was over
