Hey, this for my women all around the world, go

My mistress, sweet mistress baby you're not ignored

It's for my goddesses of all different colors and sizes
The women that don't gotta have to front and disguises
Makeup on for attention man, we fiendin' for that It's all good for the fellas, there's a reason for that
She got them heels on, she won't ever lose
She got the Louiboutin, she got them Jimmy choos
She got a sweet voice when she say stuff
She lookin' so fine without makeup (Yeah)
Show-stoppin' and killin' it with your strut
Look at fellas in the back just bringin' it to the front
They might call you ugly, that ain't for you to know
The only word of appearance for you is beautiful
So fine and your worth it. I feel it
This for the women 'round the world givin' birth to the children
And them girls growin' up, y'all up in the place
So when they hurt you wipe the tears off your face

It ain't a lot when I see her, so real
But you're sexier than ever, you're a full course meal
You're a figure of art, you're so beautiful babe
He really said that you're fat? Slap that dude in the face
I know women 'round the world got a power that's bigger
You sexy, you don't have to have an hour-glass figure
With them tight jeans (Oh yeah!)
Oh you swaggin' like (Oh no!)
I love the way they fittin' (Yeah)
And I just wanna (Hit it)
Shake it and do it even if you really don't know
Walk it like a runway, do it up in slo-mo
It's so profound boo, you know how to Really be queen, look baby I gotta crown you
You ain't gotta trip though, know that you're first
There ain't a price on you baby, you should know what you're worth
Yeah, and yell up in the place
Don't worry, wipe the tears off your face
Let's go, babe, yeah!

This is for the mothers
Women of all colors
The grown-ups and the girls
