D-Pryde

It's weird I got fans and a new career
It makes me ask the big homie what I'm doing here
Thank god for this heavenly vacation
For the dream life I want, man I'm even buying souveneirs
Man I used to be a loser here, bullies and haters were the stupid people who I fear High school was the worst thing to go through Cause I never burned green, or took a sip of someone's stupid beer
I started as a kid that was border than most kids, and found a thing called windows recorder
Had a little fun trying to write my own song
And found this was the dream that would I find lifelong cause
While other kids did drugs I was home recording
It wasn't luck to find this love I was chosin for it
While other kids went to partys meeting new dudes, I was at home making comedy on youtube
Man I got a fanbase off that, thousands of people screaming, yelling my name
But since I got a record deal and all that People wanna claim that d-pryde changed, man forget it It's foolish just to hide, the fact that now I'm signed but I'm
For all this pride
That I got for all the things that I do, it's out of sight now
I wanna take this time to thank my bestfriends right now,
Sorry for the commotion that I'm causing, cause hanging out with me can be a sign of great caution
I'm basically a target, and I want you to not get involved with haters cause ya'll might get hurt up in the process
And ya'll accepting me for who I am, bad friends I didn't know what I should do with them
And ya'll picked me up and helped me, just to let you know without nhb there would be no d-pryde in general
And man I really wanna thank the label for helping me with my dream
And yeah there might be things that distress us but we a team
And we're standing in this huddle making money well I'm sure we're able Still remembering that phone call in early april
Jason told me I can make you a superstar
Phil told me, you gotta work hard for this Suss 1 said, we're bout to make a movie baby
Now we're going straight up on to mars with this
And last of all I wanna thank all of the fans, for being with me everytime I crank up and expand
Now it ain't even an asian thing, even girls get me, and the fellas man, I got the whole world with me
Is it funny I'm killing it so don't touch me, if you hated or d egraded consider your sad ass lucky that you even brought me do wn

Listen to my pain, to the bullies and the haters know that this is what you made

Just a small token of appreciation, thank you everybody

Nhb, mars music, and fans, you made my life what it is now
