

Pryde - Fly Away

D-Pryde

Oh they tell me, just wont you stop but imma give my all, into what i got Just go hard, its all i know
Ready for this race , on your marks set go
Baby imma, fly away
Imma spread my wings and fly away
Baby imma, fly away
Imma spread my wings babyy

I started as the underdog rapper but my flow was so fiesty back in the worst days, where nobody liked me bullied up in high school, when i was rhyiming up my stress took a couple painful years, but now im climbing to success i keep a steady pace, cause i got my brain open but bullies keep bullying, you gotta keep focus cause even when your losing, you never in a struggle and sometimes your brain, works better then your muscle i get rhythem, and crack rhythem like text spittin' bullets through your rap careers, im looking for my next victim im next to getting in my age to be the best, i did it hey career's looking like emily roses excorcism.
but who's messing cause i kill ya spot made it through the races on me and im still on top everywhere my name rings and my names on everything till i die i remain king so imma fly and spread my wings.
YEAH!

Oh they tell me, just wont you stop
but imma give my all, into what i got
Just go hard, its all i know
Ready for this race , on your marks set go
Baby imma, fly away
Imma spread my wings and fly away
Baby imma, fly away
Imma spread my wings babyy
Oh oh woah oh

Never been a traitor, i just had to hide Never had a thumb down, i deserve high ratings Never been a sucker, Never broke bridges.
With the people that i love, that kept my loving close business These people keep asking, did you really get jumped yeah i got jumped, they beat me senseless so what?
They tried to rob my phone and i tried to fight back and i lost my front teeth, but i grind it right after I fought threw the rain., flew flights across the boarder First is a straight slaughter, horror, call the corridoor
All of ya place calls, to gain my rightful home Straight being alone, get the crowd, where's my throne.

Oh they tell me, just wont you stop
but imma give my all, into what i got
Just go hard, its all i know
Ready for this race , on your marks set go
Baby imma, fly away
Imma spread my wings and fly away

Baby imma, fly away
Imma spread my wings babyy
Oh oh woah oh

All they do is Hate on me, put the blame on me but couldn't face me one bit They tried to take my pride but i was to fly
In the end i would never just quit
So i kept on moving, i kept on grinding
I did it non-stop
I got pushed right down, but i came back around I'm still on top You say im original but why you got what i got on Hate on every track im in,
But this might be your favourite song
Who really cares about what they say, Cause imma be okay.

Oh they tell me, just wont you stop (oooooooooh) but imma give my all, into what i got (what i got) Just go hard, its all i know (i'll go hard)
Ready for this race , on your marks set go Baby imma, fly away (oh oh lets flyy lets flyy) Imma spread my wings and fly away (lets fly x2)
Baby imma, fly away (lets fly x2)
Imma spread my wings babyy
Oh oh woah oh
