

Nobody's Child

D:Ream

Throw your arms around everyone you meet
You'd do anyone to make yourself feel complete
Run around town with your love come easy
Well, it must be hard to be
The life and soul of the party

You'll never know your mama's kisses
You'll never know her sweet, sweet smile
You'll never know someone who loves you
Never to know
Nobody's child
You're running wild
Like nobody's child

Have you ever found what makes you so lonely?
Does it get you down or get you on your feet?
Is it just another one of your infractions?
Well, maybe that's the price
Of too much action

Never to know your baby's kisses
Never to know her sweet, sweet smile
Never to know somebody loves you
Destined to be
Nobody's child
You're running wild
Like nobody's child

How can you be in love
If you've never been loved?
How can you be in love
If you've never been loved?

You'll never know your mama's kisses
You'll never know your baby's smile
You'll never know someone who wants you
Never to know
Nobody's child
Just running wild
Like nobody's child
