

Missing You

D-Side

The things I won't miss
I won't miss your smile
Oh, the way you look at me
Like you can see inside
The lips I want kiss
Will play on my mind
It's just a thing that we had now
It's better left behind

If that's of there is
I know I won't be waiting for you all my life

You know I'm getta alone without you now
But if you missing me somehow
I won't be missing you
And if I ever find the time
To forget that you were mine
I won't be missing you
At all...

So what if you're gone
I'll be ok
Another wants in all life time
You're sure that come my way
And I will find love
In words that I play
I'll find another hero
Who will save my life again

If that's of there is
I know I'll always be there waiting all my life

You know I'm getta alone without you now
But if you missing me somehow
I won't be missing you
And if I ever find the time
To forget that you were mine
I won't be missing you
At all...

No, I'm not getting on
But I'm loosing your love
Heaven know where left to fall
Oh, know where left to run
And I don't really know
As hard as I try
In saying Good Bye

You know I'm getta alone without you now
But if you missing me somehow
I won't be missing you
And if I ever find the time
To forget that you were mine
I won't be missing you
At all...
