Mothers Son

D-Side

I’m believer, I believe in myself
Just sky on way
Won’t get turn by no one else
If the sky should fall
And people drug you under
I’m gonna make that call
Remember what my mamma said

Drive me to a little world full of lies
With smile on your face, when everyone’s crying
Stand on goal look done on no one
Be your mothers’ son
Treat your brother like you want it right back
Straight in the out face of too fast
Gonna be judged by the things you’ve done
Oh, be your mothers son
Oh, be your mothers son

People are talking
Trying to change my point of view
I am listening
I’m gonna do what I wanna do
If the sky should fall
And people drug you under
I’m gonna make that call
Remember what my mama said
She said

Drive me to a little world full of lies
With smile on your face, when everyone’s crying
Stand on goal look done on no one
Be your mothers’ son
Treat your brother like you want it right back
Straight in the out face of too fast
Gonna be judged by the things you’ve done
Oh, be your mothers son

She told me everything
That I mean should stay for
I live by everyone
Too I wanna be
Too I wanna be

If the sky should fall
And people drug me under
I’m gonna make that call
Remember what my mama said

Drive me to a little world full of lies
With smile on your face, when everyone’s crying
Be your mothers’ son

Oh, be your mothers son
