

Side - Fly

D-Side

For so long
You've been holding on Smiling all the way
I can't believe you're gone

In your eyes
We saw the strength to fight
The ever fading light
Now the memories
Ease our pain and set you free

Fly...
Fly away
And when you arrive remember my name

Goodbye
perfect days
Now I am left with words I'll never get to say
Fly away

In my dreams
I feel your presence near
We laugh a million laughs
And cry as many tears

On the road to a future made of gold
And someone takes your hand
And leads you to, a place I can't go

So Fly, Fly away
And when you arrive remember my name
Goodbye perfect days (Perfect days)
Now I am left with words I'll never get to say
So fly away...

Now I know I'll touch your face again
And see those eyes of blue
You'll run your fingers through my hair
Like no one else can do

There's no one like you
Until we meet again I am always missing you
I am crying out
crying out

As you fly..

Fly away (Fly away)
And when you arrive, remember my name

There's tears on my face
Now I am left with words that I never get to say

Fly..
Fly away (Fly away)
And when you arrive remember my name

Goodbye perfect days (Perfect days)
So fly away..

Fly fly
Fly away
Fly fly
Fly away
