Be so Bad

D'Sound

I don't mind to let the day go by when i'm sitting inside, sun is on the sky but I hate getting no reply, just the echo of me from the walls all day long I've been by myself writing funky tunes, talking to no one else I don't know why this turns me on and I really, really need someone

I wanna be so bad, feeling someone else around me people say that I am so uptight well, if that is true, I'm someone else tonight feeling urges I can't controll – I want you to be the first to know sing 'bout love when it is not in sight I stay in all day and I stay up all night I know what could make me feel alright and I really, really; I need someone!

like me! I wanna mean so much to you
