

Crashing

d4vd

Baby, baby, I've been asleep
For far too long
But when you wake me, say you love me
And sing our song
I don't wanna be useless, I don't wanna be stupid
I don't wanna be dumb
I know you've been going through it
But baby I've been going through it all along

It all comes crashing down
It all comes crashing down
I'll be holding on to you, holding on to you
I'll be holding on to you, holding on to you

When the world comes crashing down, I know where I'll stand
Right next to my baby, keep holding my hand
'Cause the enemy may try to conquer and divide
Well I'll stay by your side, every day and every night
Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, do you, ooh ooh ooh
Think we could ever fall out like everyone else does
No oh, oh, oh, oh, ooh, we wo-oh-oh-on't
Just hold me tight and don't you let go

It all comes crashing down
It all comes crashing down
I'll be holding on to you, holding on to you
I'll be holding on to you, holding on to you (Still holding) (Still holding)
(I'm still)
