

Dream

d4vd

I saw you at the store
And who would've thought
That we'd match so perfectly
I knew in this moment my life turned into a dream
Faces turning red
You got me smiling cheek to cheek
And I feel complete

It's okay
I like the words you say to me
Oh my imperfections are so hard to see
When I'm with you
You, you, you

I saw you at the store
Now you're in my arms
It worked out so perfectly
My life is complete

Sometimes I, like to look upon the stars above
You and I L-O-V-E love

I saw you at the store
And would've thought we'd match so perfectly
My life is complete
