Fall Down

d4vd

Your hands disappear
In the wind
I'll be seeing your faces

Your hands disappear
In the wind
I'll be seeing your faces

You can't control me
Blood stains all over me
Please stay right here

And it's too late to fall down
It's too late to fall down
And It's too late to fall down
It's too late to fall down

Why are you here
Holding on to me
I don't care
You belong to me
Your hands disappear
In the wind
I'll be seeing your faces

Your hands disappear
In the wind
I'll be seeing your faces

Your hands disappear
In the wind
I'll be seeing your faces

And it's too late to fall down
It's too late to fall down
And It's too late to fall down
It's too late to fall down

Your hands disappear
In the wind
I'll be seeing your faces
