

Friend Again

d4vd

I wanna settle down
When I get older
I'm looking over shoulders
I wanna fall in love
"Think we should settle down"
That's what I told her
I should've been less bolder
She said I'm not the one

I used to be her everything
And now she doesn't ask me
I didn't ask for anything
I only want her next to me

Love me, hate me, whatever you're feeling
Nothing changes, I don't wanna be your friend again
Be your friend again
I know you wanna fight me, hurt me, whenever I'm healing
You're too dangerous, I don't wanna be your friend again
Be your friend again

I think I'm coming down
But it's not over
I'm losing my composure
Letting you get to me
Good thing we're older now
But I still want her
She's got someone better
And I've got jealousy

I used to be her everything
And now she doesn't answer me
I didn't ask for anything
I only want her next to me

Love me, hate me, whatever you're feeling
Nothing changes, I don't wanna be your friend again
Be your friend again
I know you wanna fight me, hurt me, whenever I'm healing
You're too dangerous, I don't wanna be your friend again
Be your friend again

Now you're lonely
You need company
Please don't call me
I won't be your friend again
Be your friend again
You could show me that you're sorry
But I'm sorry
I won't be your friend again
Be your friend again
