

Leave Her

d4vd

You call me, at like 2
"I can't sleep, how bout you?"
You want me, to come through
I found peace, without you

You want what you can't have
But its my fault I bought it for you
You know I don't focus upon the past
But when you call I start to lose it
Is it okay for me to leave it all behind?
Even the name of someone that I knew

I can't stop falling for her (I can't stop falling for her)
I can't keep calling on her (I can't keep calling on her)
Did what she want me to (Did what she want me to)
But I still leave her

I don't believe it is all as it seems, you know you broke me do wn
So don't come back around, I leave, she leave
There ain't no other way, she said she go both ways
I said, well baby

You want what you can't have
But its my fault I bought it for you
You know I don't focus upon the past
But when you call I start to lose it
Is it okay for me to leave it all behind?
Even the name of someone that I knew

I can't stop falling for her
I can't keep calling on her
Did what she want me to
But I still leave her

(Leave her, leave her, leave her, leave her)
But I still leave her
(Leave her, leave her, leave her, leave her)
But I still leave her
(Leave her, leave her, leave her, leave her)
But I still leave her
(Leave her, leave her, leave her, leave her)
But I still leave her
