

Poison

d4vd

Hm, yeah
One, two, three

Something's in my Kool-Aid
Fentanyl, poison on a Tuesday
Feel a lil' drowsy, going down
I didn't hit the ground
(Check it)
I need a bed or two
Wind down your hair while you cut down your Malibu
I don't care about the view
Cause everywhere I go, all I see is more of you
Your figure is horrible
I wish I would've known your crazy agenda
A cup full of truth with a pint of pretend
I'm moving, I'm moving
I'm moving, I'm-
(What?)

You're a starstruck girl
That's your problem
You don't notice that I've solved it
And you're wanted in five countries
I can't stop it
But I'll never forget when you poisoned me
Murder on your mind when I try to leave
Keep the lights on when I fall asleep
You break into my heart with a lock and key

Everything you did, I did before
You think that you're special because I'm poisoned
- - you didn't have a choice
Don't get quiet now, come on use your voice
And now that I'm dead, are you happy now?
There should be nothing to be sad about
Something's definitely wrong with you
But something's even more wrong with me
I ate the gum on my tennis shoe
But you still thought you could torture me

Yeah, hold on
I like this part of the song right here
Hey, hey
Hey, hey

You're a starstruck girl
That's your problem
You don't notice that I've solved it
And you're wanted in five countries
I can't stop it
But I'll never forget when you poisoned me
Murder on your mind when I try to leave
Keep the lights on when I fall asleep
You break into my heart with a lock and key
