

What Are You Waiting For

d4vd

I see you from across the room
I thought I wouldn't feel a thing
I think it's getting colder now
I wanna get close to you

I swear that we've been here before
I guess you didn't notice me
But you do now
Oh, you do now

What are you waiting for?
What are you waiting for?
'Cause I've been standing here
Oh, I've been standing here

What are you waiting for?
What are you waiting for?
'Cause I've been standing here
It's never been so clear

I get it if you wanna wait
'Cause I'll stay in my place
I ain't got nowhere to go
I got plenty time to waste
I think I've fallen in love
But that's not enough
If you don't feel the same
I guess I'll leave you alone

But it's time and time again, babe
You're never listening, babe
If there's no promises made
I don't ever wanna fall in love
I don't ever wanna mess it up
We're running out of luck

What are you waiting for?
What are you waiting for?
'Cause I've been standing here
Oh, I've been standing here

What are you waiting for?
What are you waiting for?
'Cause I've been standing here
It's never been so clear

Tell me to stay, you're wasting my time
Every day I'm waiting in line
Standing in place, 'cause baby that's all I know
Why do you wait? Just tell me

What are you waiting for?
What are you waiting for?
'Cause I've been standing here
Oh, I've been standing here

What are you waiting for?

What are you waiting for?
'Cause I've been standing here
Oh, I've been standing here
