

WORTHLESS

d4vd

I just left the party with a girl that said she doesn't want me
I feel out of body the way the world keeps wishing death upon me

Take it away, feel it now (Ooh)
Red all in the face, don't calm me down

'Cause every time the sun comes up I start feeling worthless
It's easier said than done, I'm trying to find my purpose
I should've ran away by now
But I can't escape this town

It's taking a minute for me to adjust, wait
It's taking a minute for me to give up, hey
It's been easier to forget and shut up, woah
All that's left in my pocket's a couple of bucks, hey
All I had is gone (All I had is gone)
So what am I waiting on? (What am I waiting on?)
Somebody put me to sleep, I'm done, done, done

'Cause every time the sun comes up I start feeling worthless
It's easier said than done, I'm trying to find my purpose
I should've ran away by now
But I can't escape this town
