

You Left Me First

d4vd

I think it's strange when I call you
And you don't pick up, 'cause you always do
And you say you were busy
But you've never not made time for me

Why do you lie when there's no point in lying?
Why do I try when there's no point in trying?
You loved me at my best, I loved you at your worst
How ironic is that when you left me first?

It never makes sense to me
Falling deeper into jealousy
'Cause I can't help the thought of you
With someone else, I know the truth

Why do you lie when there's no point in lying?
Why do I try when there's no point in trying?
You loved me at my best, I loved you at your worst
How ironic is that when you left me first?

How? How? You left me first
How? How? You left me first
