

Age ain't nothin' but a number
 When I see the young ones amongst us
 I pray that they hunger for God while the sun's up
 While still summer time before it's winter time
 I pray that they would come up
 Before they reach old age and they can take a fall
 And their knees won't break and they see no gray
 They teeth don't shake, before the wrinkled face, and they relocate yeah
 Where're my daylight soldiers with a teenage frame
 But a faith like grownups, play time's over
 The weight on my shoulders
 Comes from the young that say "I'll wait 'til I'm older"
 But why wait 'til you're 35
 You can be mature for your age in the Word of God
 Faith can be certified
 Laced in a shirt and tie
 You can be 13 going on 30 Ahhh

Age ain't nothin' but a number
 Can't judge a book by it's cover
 I know what you see will make you wonder
 I'm just acting older than my number

They say the children are the future
 That's far from the truth but that's what we tell our youth groups
 And since that's what they've become used to
 It's hard for them to offer themselves to be useful
 No wonder they on YouTube all day and night
 Cause it's like they ain't useful 'til they put on a new suit
 So we tell'em welcome to the new school
 Yes we need the old school, look at what the Jews do
 At age 5, little Jewish kids with an able mind, retain all five
 Books of the Pentateuch, rain or shine
 They are trained to abide at every age stage of their lives
 So to say "I'm too young" is an age old lie
 Cause the early bird catches the worm, it's your turn
 So you ain't gotta live all earthly
 When you can be 13 going on 30

Age ain't nothing but a number
 Can't judge a book by it's cover
 I know what you see will make you wonder
 I'm just acting older than my number

They say a child shall lead them, but who gon train'em?
 Who gonna lead'em? Who gon Feed'em? Who gonna teach'em?
 Take'em out on the weekend, show'em how to stand like Daniel and his three friends
 You know it's gotta be us talkin' bout you and I, all of the adults
 Culturally aware with our thumbs on the pulse
 You know it's up to us to show the young how to walk
 Look at Lebron James, he was 19 when he got in the game
 Pushin' rock in the lane, Dakota Fanning holdin' a fan club, 7 years old when they rolled in the cameras
 Joseph, Daniel, what about Samuel?
 Mary in the manger, all teenagers yeah
 If they could serve God early, then you can be 13 going on 30

Age ain't nothing but a number
Can't judge a book by it's cover
I know what you see will make you wonder
I'm just acting older than my number
