

Gray

Da' T.R.U.T.H.

Turn up season back to business
True Christians don't act religious
Okay now you can ask the question
Not much time imma cast division
Based on how the world is changing
No such thing as a bad decision
Imma let you be the judge
Tell me is that fact a fiction
'Nother rapper sack religious
Man they need to ask forgiveness
See that writin' on the wall
Man we call the vandalism
Just that skin that I was born to be in'
A p like thats your o p in
I be like thats cliché
We got that from the Europeans
First of all
First of all
They don't really wanna see the church involved
Cuz we talkin' abstinence
While they talkin' birth control
They make the rules as to go along
They blur the lines and reverse the wrongs
We gotta fight the bullet like Leroy
Thats why I'm cryin' out have mercy Lord

I feel
Black and white
Black and white in this gray world I feel [x4]
But maybe I'm just color blind
Maybe I'm out of my mind
Maybe I'm one of a kind
And we just don't see eye to eye
Maybe I done crossed the line
But its time to draw the line
Truth is not so hard to find
Truth can not be redefined

Rockstars rockin' entertainers
They speak words that penetrate us
When they talk we stop and listen
All because they rich and famous
Coaches shiftin' different changes
Coaches shiftin' livin' dangerous
Universal epidemic
Don't nobody care what the scripture sayin'
People so opinionated
And they think they liberated
They say let that freedom rang
I'm afraid they've been mistaken
They say truth is what you make it
They say truth is what you make it
We say thats a flat lie
Let God weigh in on the conversation
Whatcha say?
Whatcha say?
That's a mind set from a different day?

All of that so ten years ago
And they just wanna keep that picture gray?
So sorry to disappoint ya
But God's still got somethin' to say
From love to hip hop
To the instagram pics that I post to post when I'm in the gray

I feel
Black and white in this gray world I feel [x4]
But maybe I'm just color blind
Maybe I'm out of my mind
Maybe I'm one of a kind
And we just don't see eye to eye
Maybe I done crossed the line
But its time to draw the line
Truth is not so hard to find
Truth can not be redefined

God of heavenly wanna teach us forever
Wanna show us pleasure
And man is not how you measure
I ain't got the answers
Can I ever be the standard
Standing on a rock to avoid the sand on the desert
You could think what you want
But I promise Gods got the final say
Got away from truth that we used to model like Tyra Banks
Bottle away the bible base life is better for brighter days
A lot has changed but truth is the reason I'm alive today

Stars are bright when you are near
The hearts alive when you appear
All I know it starts when you
Reveal yourself
I come to life

To life
