

Brand New Truth

Daan

This is what really happened to the beatles
They got eve pregnant on the wings of eagles
The kid was born the ninety second month
With John Travolta standing by the pond
I know it cause I once was a beatle
Before my holy blood it crossed a needle
Now things have changed for worse I do admit
By new religions all my dreams were hit
You were hungry for some learning
All they gave you was just U-turning
You ain't seen the new thing
Pages keep on turning the truth

Who knows what really happened in those chambers
The air was thin the room was full of strangers
We range our pillows straighten up the truth
We drown in kellogs all our critic youth
These documents they're CSI requisits
These politicians dance corrected visits
The victims get a free ride of their own
But I'm glad I'm not a school kid going home
You were hungry for some learning
All they gave you was retrograding
Their new truth CRAZY
It's a spoof phase ME
A Brand new truth

So give another Oscar to the poor ones
Export another cutie to the Donna
The only Lama who made it to the states
Lives behind paparazzi guided gates
Myself I live inside a fucked up country
All these politic assholes fill my tv

These funny shows that make 'm all look all bright
These flemish primitives their silly fight
You were hungry for some learning
All they gave you is darwin burning
It's all logic nature's magic
We're all fabric drop the logic
Randomise science
Emphasize blindness
Synchronise a new mess

Do foresake your need for proof
Welcome to a Brand new truth
