

Radio Silence

Daan

who locked the gates who's blocking the entrance who's got the final take? who's got the years who's got the prescription who's got a little blank? who's got the keys the blocks and the busters? who's got random taste who made the choice who's sending the invoice for such a load of crap? pick up the phone and make your request for a non commercial break The monogames The audio tortures the filling of the gap
I need a break from all this gongestion I want to catch the thieves a coup d'etat a sentence to trash cans the maximized db's
Radio Silence
they say white noise is in better shape
Radio Silence
only silence is worth an inch of tape daytripping immediate action big muffin injecting the verdict the caption dog kicking we're blasting the new information wide spreading contracting the new modulation only wanting peaks clipping the digital output beats trimming ears rimming the media sin flood phones ringing can't tucky's the quicker the burger mute murder crossfading publicity burden all I need is Radio Silence

get your ticket to the mid wave rapes Radio Silence
radio listeners descend from radio apes
Radio Silence
they say white noise is in better shape
Radio Silence
only silence is worth an inch of tape who's got the ears who's paying the ransom For the tops without the gears
I need a break from all this gongestion
I want some radio silence
