

Exit Plan

Dááth

You cant escape this sealed in fate delete your past is not an option watching the clock for the precise moment their you are waiting so just sit back and exhale

for the very last time

take the chance
and board the plane headed into the final destination

plane crash into the fucking ocean plane crash a lifeless emotion plane crash a short sting and then you suffer

nothing here to bind us now you are left with an exit plan there are no survivors only god can save us now

plane crash a lifeless emotion

there is no way to scream oxygen deprived the air is depleting from with inside you are deprived from with in your lungs choking on your guiltless devotion

plane crash a lifeless emotion plane crash a short sting then you suffer plane crash into the fucking ocean
