

Oxygen Burn

Dáåth

Gasping for one last breath
Crushed in the endless vortex
Implied decisions are reborn
Swallowing it down with the taste of poison on your tongue
The sun consumes the oxygen

I fucked your life

I fucked your life
Torn apart and demoralized
Destroying all that you've clung too

A plane is drawn
The line that divides
Feeling the sting from the
Sharpened point at which you fail

Oxygen burning every sense
Carcinogen inhaling death

I fucked your life
Demoralized

Choking on a new disease
Drowning in self pity
Taking one last breath
Taking one last breath
