

CLEAR THIS SHIT

DaBaby

Flowing like the water
I be floating like a tadpole
Hustle, I go get what I want and I'm a asshole
Watch the way you talk to me
Please do not approach me
Like no motherfuckin' boy, I'm tryna' tell you it's gon' get bad, bro
Tryna' raise my daughters right
Workin' on my temper, don't even get mad at the drive-thru if they didn't get my order right
I thought I had it figured out
I found out it was more to life
Found out I'm that nigga, now she tryna' be my whore tonight

Yeah, some people ain't gon' want to hear this shit
But they ain't gon' have no fuckin' choice, when Kanye clear this shit
Some people ain't gonna want to hear this shit
But they ain't gon' have no fucking choice, when Kanye clear this shit

Yeah, I'm that nigga; that N-I-G-G-A
She huggin' and giving kisses
We intimate PDA
I'm giving these niggas whippins'
I'm givin' them BTA
I'm making them pick out switches
Just like grandma back in the day
He used to be my nigga, ended up goin' our separate ways
She used to be my bitch. It's nothing more 'bout that to say
I really went, got rich, and I'm still executing the play
I keep it on my hip, it's right here ready for you today
Pussy nigga better have it right
Niggas ain't talking 'bout shit
I can out-rap them with half a mic
Ready for them to blitz, I'ma do these niggas so bad tonight
Making 'em cut the sirens on, screaming and calling the ambulance
Police pull up with flashing lights
Nigga

Yeah, some people ain't gon' want to hear this shit
But they ain't gon' have no fuckin' choice, when Kanye clear this shit
Some people ain't gonna want to hear this shit
But they ain't gon' have no fucking choice, when Kanye clear this shit

When this shit dropped, I was in ninth grade
Mama used to tell us turn them lights off 'till them lights paid
Bills was too hot, she worked two jobs on a light day
'Till I went and hit a light lick and went and bought a new scale, finna do this shit the right way
Out here like a quarterback, tryna' focus on the best play
Went and took my daughter back, told my mama we had the best day
My cup was overflowin', I wasn't surprised when the drought came
Had to change my mind from hustlin' to survive to playin' the out game
I kept on fighting, kept on shootin' about it
This album givin' niggas game, I just put music behind it
In the middle of the day, I put this tool on your body
This ain't the motherfucking 'lum or the 'nati
You know it's baby, nigga

People ain't gon' want to hear this shit
But ain't gon' have no fuckin' choice, when Kanye clear this shit
Some people ain't gonna want to hear this shit
But ain't gon' have no fucking choice

Yeah, some people ain't gon' want to hear this shit
But they ain't gon' have no fuckin' choice, when Kanye clear this shit
Some people ain't gonna want to hear this shit
But they ain't gon' have no fucking choice, when Kanye clear this shit
