

In A Minute

DaBaby

Yeah, proud of my losses, I don't care if I'm winning I see the way they mug, ain't finna stay with you niggas
You know I stay down like a thug, I climbed the stairs with my niggas They're like "Baby, come get yo' spot", I'll be right there in a minute, I'll be right there in a minute It's all good you know I gotta' take the heart away, but that's the way it go o we don't let 'em come and take yo' heart away Or let 'em take your soul away
It go down I'm a slang, I'm 'a drop my nuts and let 'em hang My daughters a family, I already know the play
Sippin' on this tequila, tryna imagine what my bro would say Caught up inside of the media, sitting there laughing, nigga I know you ain't t
Thinking it won't go down about my struggle Thinking it won't go down about my struggle, nigga I know you ain't I can damn near walk in that bitch with my eyes closed, nigga, I know the ba nk
I'm 'a give you the real thing every time, ain't no need to overthink Ready to go through whatever, I know they don't understand the way a solider think Nigga probably had too much dip on his chip, probably ain't know his rank Get you out contact, let you finish your sentence and sit there and know it' s fake
The repo' man came and took a car, guess the note was late Don't say that, nuh-uh, I hope it ain't Know I got your back and later you gon' tell 'em fuck me, like I ain't over play
I'm the type of nigga know you really need it, I'm 'a go and do it anyway
You ever ride for a nigga, die for a nigga and they ever fell away
And never even feel the need to even come and talk to you they just drift aw ay
I'm 'a run it nigga, pick a play
Hold it up like what my riches say Fuck that nigga like my bitches say, fuck that nigga like my bitches say?
Just look at my eyes I done been through some shit, that's probably what my picture say
Scared to hold my head up and let you see the real me 'cause I been thuggin'
, baby
Want you to know that I appreciate the way you make me feel, I know you love me, baby
Hold me closer when you fuck me, baby, hold me closer when we fucking, baby

I'm 'a need you to go put a Draco on your name and never report it stolen Make you look over your shoulder, all of their face, whenever you bust it op en
I don't like your friends, fuck your homies
Say it two times, fuck your homies
Say it three times, fuck your homies, yeah, yeah, yeah

It's hard to not use my hands, like I'm a man, when you sitting there suckin'
' on me
It's hard not to love this bitch when I'm out here thuggin', ain't no one lo ving on me
I don't like your friends, fuck your homies
Say it two times, fuck your homies
Say it three times, fuck your homies, yeah, yeah, yeah

I wear my losses, I don't care if I'm winning They won't see me on the top, I'll be back there in a minute
Did everything straight from the heart, they see me stand on the business
We won't see you back on the charts, I'll be back there in a minute, I'll be back there in a minute

It's all good, you know I gotta' take a stiff away
They ever shut you off, you better go and find a different way, or go and find another way Fuck these niggas, no, none of these niggas love me just like my brother say Gotta' watch who you sit and call your friend that's what my mother say Then go right back and be there to save 'em, just like my mother do
My heart too big and that's why niggas always playing, it's all because of you Always get back home safe because you always praying, it's all because of you, praying it's all because of you
